VAMP

I just re-ceived a let-ter from my pal,
I'll say goodbye to all the Cab-a-rets,

I just re-ceived a let-ter from my gal,
I'll say goodbye to all the great white ways,

I just now bought a tick-et I'm tired of all the strife on on a train that leaves for Birm-ing-ham, old Broadway I'm off for Birm-ing-ham,

My folks will There's someone

meet me at the station gate, wait-ing down in Al-a-bam,

With a wel-come hand,
With a heart that's true,

Whist-les blow-in' and I'm go-in' down to Birm-ing-ham.
 Stop your greav-in' cause I'm leav-in' wish me good-luck too.

CHORUS

I'm going home, way down in Birmingham, Going home, that is just what I am, I can hear my old girl call-ing me, Oh, Hen-ry! Oh, Hen-ry!

Won't you come back? I'm going to ride that dear old Dixie flyer to my Southern home, My folks will meet me, greet me Way down in Birm-ing, I said down in Birm-ing, Way down in Birm-ing-ham, I'm going ham.
