mem - o - ry of one night in June long a - go. On sym - pa - thy, The riv - er it - self seems to know; It that night, the moon - light Had east a - cross the stream a ray of whis - pers, "Be pa - tient, The moon will shine a - gain up - on the love - light, The whole world seemed all a-glow With love for a girl I know. mor - row And bring back that mem-o-ry Of that night of long a - go."

CHORUS

We were sail - ing down the riv - er in the Moon - light, Man - dy and

I, And I seemed to see the light of heaven shin - ing

In her big, blue, laugh - ing eye; There nev - er was such a night, such a night, For she prom - ised to be mine As we sailed a - long the riv - er in the Moon - light, Man dy - and I.

We were I
