do with-out, But ev-'ry night as far as I'm con-cerned:
moon so bright, It's then I feel the pangs of lone-li-ness:

CHORUS

The birds don't count, the bees don't count, The sum-mer breeze and the trees don't count, WHEN YOU'RE

COUNT-ING THE STARS A - LONE, And lov-er's lane, that shad-y lane, Some-how it seems to be there in vain, WHEN YOU'RE COUNT-ING THE STARS A - LONE, I find all nights are love-nights to oth-ers I see,

To them the stars are love-lights, But they're just stars to me, The good old moon, its beams don't count, You dream and dream, but your dreams don't count, WHEN YOU'RE
