(You Ought-a Hear Olaf Laff)

Lyric by

Comedy Fox-Trot Song

Music by
ABEL BAER

Allegro moderato

The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a rhythmic melody with eighth and sixteenth notes, while the left hand provides a steady accompaniment with chords and single notes. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato' and the dynamics include a forte 'f' marking.

O-laf was a sail-or man, a sail-or man was he, And O-laf wore that sil-ly grin both morn-ing, noon and night, When

The first system of the song includes the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "O-laf was a sail-or man, a sail-or man was he, And O-laf wore that sil-ly grin both morn-ing, noon and night, When". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady rhythm, marked with a mezzo-forte 'mf' dynamic.

when he sailed the sea, The o - cean laughed with glee. — O-laf sailed from peo-ple shook with fright, Hed laugh with all his might. — O-laf used to

The second system continues the song. The lyrics are: "when he sailed the sea, The o - cean laughed with glee. — O-laf sailed from peo-ple shook with fright, Hed laugh with all his might. — O-laf used to". The piano accompaniment features a triplet in the bass line.

Nor-way on the good old ship Sar - dine, At sail-ing he was green, He vis-it ev - 'ry sick friend he would see, And when in pain they'd be, Then

The third system concludes the song. The lyrics are: "Nor-way on the good old ship Sar - dine, At sail-ing he was green, He vis-it ev - 'ry sick friend he would see, And when in pain they'd be, Then". The piano accompaniment ends with a triplet in the bass line and a forte 'f' dynamic.
