Old Jim Green - a gam-bl ing man. "Said I'm gwine to jine the church" And sat down in - a Jim took his gal Tues-day night, out to a swell af-fair And had to pass. a pew to wait Par-son Brown and Sis-ter Burch The church was packed that Sab-bath, good and a grave-yard that was gloom-y, long and bare His gal said Jim I'm nar-vous let me bad came for a peep Old Jim was think-ing 'bout his sins and fell off in a sleep Then hold on to you tight He said, coorse hold me hon-ey, but be sure you hold me right Just Par-son Brown said a gam-bl ing man he wants to join our flock Miss Lin-dy Lee says, as they reach-ed the grave-yard gate a form in white stood there And in a mourn-ful

He can't pa - u aw-ful shock Jim in his sleep heard the word pass jumped voice said Jim you a happy pair His gal said Jim I'm sca-ry, we can't up and said that's nice ill pass for an-y bod-y's coin an-y where on an-y dice.

 pass this place to - night Jim said no we can't pass but I will pass while pass-ing right.

CHORUS

I got two bits more that says ill pass who's got me Don't start ar-gu-ing I got four bits more that says ill pass don't hold me I am brave and mongst yourselves I don't want no rep-ar - tee 'cause when I shake, rat-tle and roll, it all like that but not 'round a cem-ter - y when folks die black and come back white if sounds like mel-o - dy I've got four bits more that says ill pass Who's got me. Who's got me. it be he or she I've got four bits more that says ill pass Don't hold me. me.
