Brightly

ad lib.

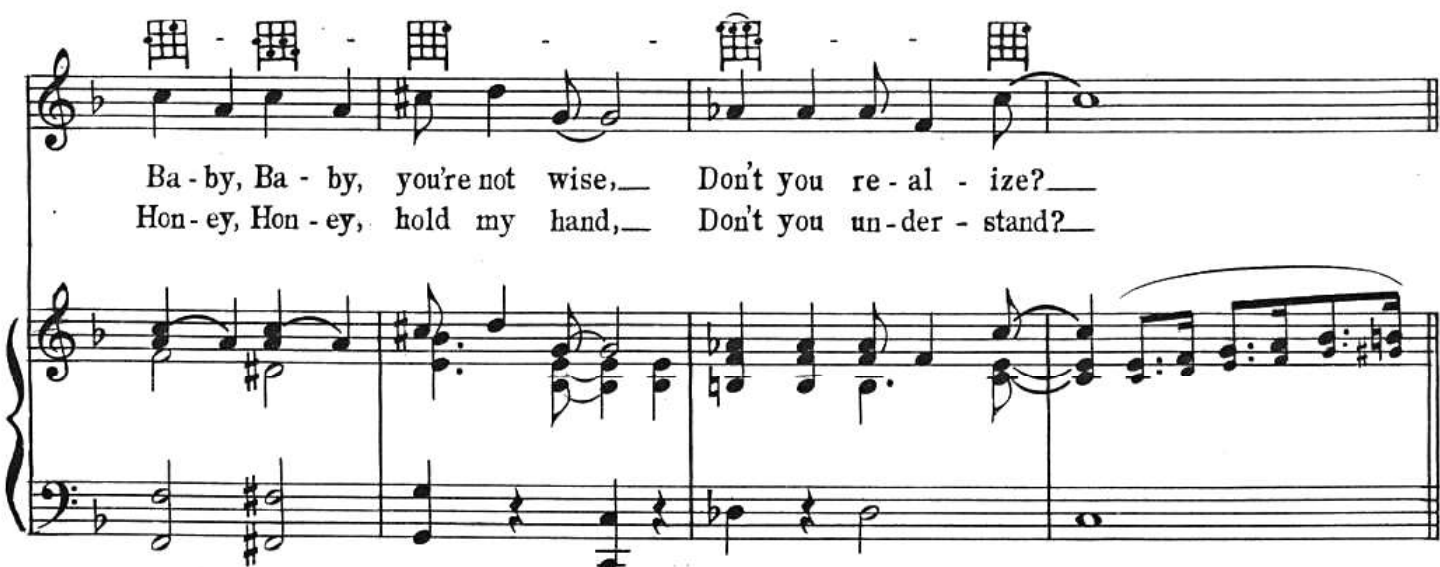

Ba - by, Ba - by, can't you see? —
Hon - ey, Hon - ey, don't re - fuse, —

Here's your op - por - tun - i - ty; — The moon — is out,
Or you'll leave me with the blues; — I need — a kiss,

the stars — are out, And I'm — with - out lov - in',
you need — a kiss, We ought — to be kiss - in',

Ba - by, Ba - by, you're not wise, — Don't you re - al - ize? —
Hon - ey, Hon - ey, hold my hand, — Don't you un - der - stand? —

CHORUS

You're so thrill-ing and I'm so will-ing, But you're as cold as can be,

TAKE YOUR HANDS OUT OF YOUR POCK-ETS, AND PUT YOUR ARMS A-ROUND ME,

You like pet-tin' and I like pet-tin', Oh how we two could a-gree,

Take your lips out o' cold stor-age and get ac-quaint-ed with me, — They say you've got a rep - u - ta - tion sec - ond to no - one, _____ You did - n't get that rep - u - ta - tion twid - dl - ing — your thumb;

I want ac - tion and sat - is - fac - tion is just what I — guar - an - tee;

TAKE YOUR HANDS CUT OF YOUR POCK - ETS AND PUT YOUR ARMS A - ROUND ME. ME. —
