

THE SPELL OF THE BLUES

WORDS BY DAVE DREYER AND HERMAN RUBY
MUSIC BY ARTHUR JOHNSTON

1177

Irving Berlin, Inc.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
1607 Broadway New York

MADE IN U.S.A.

CODE W
45 DELI

The Spell Of The Blues

Words by DAVE DREYER and
HERMAN RUBY

Tune Ukulele or
BANJULELE BANJO
A D F# B

Music by
ARTHUR JOHNSTON

Moderato

VOICE

Blues
Blues

Vamp

mf

p

we can't re-sist your call you'll find 'em ev - ry - where

Blues _____ you get the big and small _____
 Blues _____ they're ev - en in the air _____

Rich man beg - gar or thief
 When they pay - you a call

Some - how there's no re - lief
 There's no warn - ing at all

Blues _____
 Blues _____

— you're bound to get us all.
 — here's how you'll know they're there.

CHORUS

When you try so hard to smile and life does-n't seem worth while then you can tell you're un-der the spell of the blues _____ When you try to sleep it seems night - mares take the place of dreams, Then you can tell You're un-der the spell of the blues _____ Some bad o-men like a hoo-doo hov-er-ing o - ver my head Not a jinx and not a voo-doo some-thing much worse

 Gee it's a curse Sha-dows chasing af - ter me Blue skies you're a laugh to me
 1. Gee, but it's hell when you're un-der the spell of the blues.
 2. Gee, but it's hell when you're un-der the spell of the blues.