sprung a leak, — She said, — What A Night For Spoon - ing.

When the sil - ver moon is high, —
Right in - to the lake she fell, —

Float - ing in a sum - mer sky, — She says, —
As she sank they heard her yell, — Oh boy, —

— What A Night For Spoon - ing. — And if it
— What A Night For Spoon - ing. — A life - guard starts to rain, — Cats and dogs, — does she run a - way, — jumped right in, — Pulled her out, — then swam to the shore, —

Let it blow, let it snow, Do you think she gives a
