Not an-oth-er soul a-round there, On-ly just we two,
I'm a ver-y care-ful driv-er, You'll be safe with me,

Put out the lights- and cud-dle up tight,— Here's what I will do! —
When it grows dark— and we want to park,— Here's where I will be! —

Chorus

I'm gon-na park my-self— right in your arms Right in your arms and I'll stay there, Park my-self,— where I'm long-ing to be.— Just wait and you'll see. The park-ing rules- won't mean a thing,

If the po-lice- should say "Hey! there," I'll just shout,

"Run me in- and you'll see." That I will say to the Judge,

"I could-n't budge, Hav-ing such a good time," I would-n't lie,
