

P9642
92

THAT'S JAZZ

WORDS BY

OLE OLSEN

MUSIC BY

ISHAM JONES

TELL TAYLOR
MUSIC PUBLISHER
CHICAGO-NEW YORK

Words by
OLE OLSEN

THAT'S JAZ

SONG

Music by ISHAM JONES

Moderato

p
You ask me what it is the Band is play - ing
The drum-mer bobs a-round and does a wig - gle

You say you sim-ply can-not keep from sway - ing Ev'-ry lit-tle Band in the U. S. A.
He makes you want to laugh and want to gig - gle Hear that old pi - an - o and old ban - jo

Tries to play their mus-ic in that pe-cul-iar way Way down in New Or-leans or - ig - in - a - ted
How they put such rag in mus-ic I'd like to know They play a fun-ny sort of syn-co - pa - tion

They play'd some tune they knew and syn-co - pa - ted Now you hear it ev - ry - where Sure some mus-ic
The kind that seems to have a fas - ci - na - tion Just to watch them is a treat and for danc-ing

CHORUS

I do de-clare.
It can't be beat. You want to grab a girl and start in to dance
You want to walk the dog or pus - sy foot prance Shim - me - sha - wab' - ble 'till you fall in a trance or

Spoken

Try to do the Hu - la Hu - la Like they do in Hon - o - lu - lu Clar - i - nets pip - ing in their fun - ni - est tone Trom - bones a - slid - in' out a ter - ri - ble moan Wail - in' and sob - bin' of an old Sax - o - phone That's Jaz, that's dog gone moan - in' Jaz. 1 moan - in' Jaz. 2