VOICE

The boys have seen a change in me,—
A thou-sand times I've search'd my mind,

Vamp.
pp

Some-how it all seems strange to me,—
To see what rea-sons I could find,—

I'm noth-ing like I For leav-ing all my used to be — I'm ab-sent-mind-ed now what's be-hind it?

pals be-hind — I of-ten won-der what spell I'm un-der.

Some-how my nights are spent in dreams, And there a fair face beams;
There's noth-ing in my wea-ry brain, To me that can ex-plain,

She's not a Ve-nus, but just be-tween us, This is just how it seems:
That warm af-fec-tion, she's not per-fec-tion, And so I say a-gain:

CHORUS

She's just a peb-ble that's in a migh-ty o-cean, She's not the kind that would cause a great com-mo-tion, Just a branch on a great big tree, Like an-y ti - ny lit - tle flow - er, Just one in a bow - er. Shes just a star up a - bove with ma - ny oth - ers, She's bound to wed and be one of ma - ny moth - ers,

She may be one — of mil - lions, To me she's more — than bil - lions,

Sweet lit - tle maid — of my heart. heart. —
