

CHARLES FROHMAN'S
ANNUAL MUSICAL PRODUCTION

The DAIRY MAIDS

EXTRA NUMBERS

Words by
J. B.
LOUGHREY and
M. E.
ROURKE

Music by
W. T.
FRANCIS and
JEROME D.
KERN

IT'S NAUGHTY TO BE KISSED

NEW-YORK
PUBLISHED BY
T. B. ARMS COMPANY
1431-1433 BROADWAY
ASCHERBERG, HOPWOOD & CREW, LTD.
LONDON, ENG.

"It's Naughty To Be Kissed."

Words by
I. B. Loughry.

Music by
W. T. Francis.

Piano. f

1. PEGGY. I won-der what you've been a - bout, Since you sailed a-way from me, SAM. Oh,
2. SAM. It's ve - ry ag - gra - va - ting sure, It would drive a man to drink, PEGGY. Why

p

I've been in, and I've been out, A lot up - on the sea, I've don't you try the wa - ter cure, It's bet - ter far I think, A been a lone-some ce - li - bate, But now I'm home to ce - le - brate, draught from this cool pew-ter mug, Will brace you quick - er than a hug,

But you real - ly can - not ce - le - brate with me.
But a hug will cure me quick - er than a wink.

Chorus.

SAM.

PEGGY.

SAM.

Oh! yes. Oh! no. Is it real - ly tru - ly so ————— It is so. I must in - sist,

It's naughty etc.

SAM.

So please go, You must de-sist, Just one kiss you will not feel it, Close your

PEGGY. SAM.

eyes and I will steal it No not one, What not Well just one, On - ly

PEGGY.

one? one? It's— ve - ry naught - y to be kissed.

It's naughty etc.