Allegro Moderato

(He) Tell me pret - ty maid - en do you (He) Ma - ny years have passed since we've been love me? Tell me if a lit - tle bit you care, — mar - ried And the same sweet smile is on your face, —

(She) Tell me why you fol - low me a - round sir, Just for that I hate you now so (She) I re - mem - ber well the day we met dear, Ov - er yon - der down the lane a there! _____ (He) If I ask for - give - ness pret - ty maid - en, pace, _____ (He) Ev - en tho' your hair is tinged with grey dear, I

Would you care to take a lit - tle stroll? _____ (She) There are lots of oth - er fel-lows love you more to-day than years a - go, _____ (She) There are ma - ny oth - ers who have

Just as nice as you (He) But there are a few, That are kind and true, come to "Bless our home" (He) Wil - lie, John and Ray, Ma - bel, Grace and May,

(She) Then if that's the case kind sir, You may take my hand (Both) While we sing a song for
(She) You look aw - f'ly good to me, With them on your knee, (He) You can blame it all on.

CHORUS

two, (She) A lit - tle love, (He) A lit - tle kiss, Would go a me (He) A lit - tle love, (She) A lit - tle kiss, Has gone a long, long way, (She) A lit - tle hug, (He) A lit - tle long, long way, (He) A lit - tle hug, (She) A lit - tle squeeze, Would make me feel so gay, (She) If I'm the squeeze, Has made me feel so gay, (He) I was the girl (He) And I'm the boy Then let us start right boy (She) And I the girl, That start - ed all this Now, ——— (She) Would you care if my sis - ters and fun, ——— (He) While your fa - ther and moth - er, and broth - ers are there? (He) No, if they'll all close their eyes while I'm sis - ters were out, (She) You'd steal a hug, then a kiss, turn the get - ting my share (She) A lit - tle love, — (He) A lit - tle kiss, (Both) Would go a 'lec - tric lights out, (He) A lit - tle love, — (She) A lit - tle kiss, (Both) Has gone a long, long way. ——— (She) A lit - tle way. ———
