

"LORD! HAVE MERCY ON A MARRIED MAN"

LEW. DOCKSTADER'S
GIGANTIC COMIC SONG SUCCESS

WORDS BY EDGAR LESLIE

MUSIC BY
J. FRED. HELF

AS I WAS SAYING

J. FRED HELF
COMPANY
136 WEST 43RD ST. N.Y. CITY
RECORDED AT THE PALACE THEATRE

IF I COULD FIND THE MAN WHO MARRIED ME

FOOL THERE WAS AND IN THAT MAN

LORD! HAVE MERCY ON A MARRIED MAN

BLESS THE SINGLE

"Lord! Have Mercy On A Married Man."

3

Words by EDGAR LESLIE.

Music by
J. FRED HELF.

Maestoso.

Gen'-ral Sher-man once re-marked that "War was Kip-ling wrote a "Fool there was" and I'm that Hell," I've nev-er been a sol-dier, but I man, The "Mar-riage Stakes" have claimed me as an know it well, I've a wife and that's e-nough,

"al-so ran?" Ev-'ry night, I walk the floor,

Copyright 1911 by J. Fred Helf Co. 136 W. 37 Str. New York.

International Copyright Secured.

Australian Agent, J. Albert & Sons, Sydney.

Gee! but mar-ried life is tough, Case of fight both day and night, Im Listen-ing to the ba-bies roar, When they're through their 'Bal-ly hoo; My gen-tle and she's rough; If I could find the man who mar-ried wife be-gins to snore. If Life de-pen-ded on the mar-riage me, Id hang him on a sour ap-ple tree. knot. Id rath-er join the Ar-my and be shot.

CHORUS.

1st chor. Wed-ding Bells, sweet Wed-ding bells, Nev-er har-mon-ize with 2nd chor. Wed-ding Bells, sweet Wed-ding bells, Nev-er har-mon-ize with Ba - by yells, Why did I get mar-ried? If I'd on-ly tar-ried, with the Ba - by yells, Why did I get mar-ried? If I'd on-ly tar-ried, was I crowd I'd min-gle, Yel-ling out "God bless the sin-gle," Work by day and fight by off my "Bee-dle" send for "Wat-son, quick the nee-dle," Work by day and fight by night, Stand it no one can, So now you con-gre - ga-tion, Say a night, Stand it no one can, If you want to hear the jin-gle of two prayer for my sal - va-tion, Lord! Have mer-cy on a mar-ried man.

dimes why just stay sin-gle, Lord! Have mer-cy on a mar-ried man.