Intro: Moderato

Mountain maid un-a - fraid You have won my heart, And it seems Girl of mine neath the pine Where our love first grew, Wait for me of my dreams You're the dear-est part From the mo-ment I first met you, I have patient-ly I will come to you I've been star-ving for the kiss-es That I been in love with you And I'm com-ing back to get you; And make you love me too.

know your sweet lips hold For I'll find out then what bliss is, When you my arms en - fold.

Chorus

My heart's calling you the long day thro' my San - dy Sweetest mountain flow'r that ev-er grew — Ev'ry breeze that blows — ev'ry stream that flows — Seems to whisper all the time of you — Free as mountain air waves your fair hair my San - dy —

Hea-ven lin-gers in your eyes of blue — For the love that makes them glow tells me all I want to know That you're mine all mine with all your mountain charms And I

1 long to hold you San-dy in my arms. 2 My heart's arms.
