Words and Music
By HARRY JENTES.

Moderato.

I've just re-ceived your Things have - n't changed much let - ter dear, It brought the first good news this year, since the day, You said good-bye and went a - way,

I was glad to find that you've made up your mind, To Leav - ing me be - hind with such a troub - led mind, I come back home a - gain my hon - ey, I told my Ma and did - n't sleep for weeks from wor - ry, You did - n't care how she told Pa, — They told the neigh - bors, there you are, And much I sighed, You did - n't care how, much I cried, But you can see we're hap - py just to know you're com - ing back. now that you are com - ing home we'll both for - get the past.

Chorus.

'Cause you'll be wel - come when you get back home a - gain, home a - gain home a - p f

gain So hur - ry up be sure you catch that Port - land Maine train, That train is due at half past nine,

Tell the en - gi-neer to lose no time; You'll be wel - come when you get back home a - gain, 'Cause you'll be gain.
