Well,

friend of mine named Bil - ly Brown, Cranked up his Ford and left our town, Said he was go - ing
I heard U - tah call - ing me, So journeyed out there just to see If all old Bil ly tour - ing through the West; But when he got out U - tah way, He Brown had said was true. I was - n't dis - ap - point - ed there, It lingered there, then said he'd stay. I guess he thought of all the bills back home he did - n't pay.

was a land of do and dare, And so I stepped right out and chose a doz - en beauties rare.

rit.

Two years passed, I thought Bill was dead, At last I got a let - ter, this is what he said:
Then my trou-bles came thick and fast, I near - ly had to start an - oth - er church at last.

CHORUS

p-f

If you saw what I saw, you'd go to U - tah, And set - tle down a - mong the Mor - mons there. —— I know one wife is mighty fine, But not as nice as hav-ing nine; Mister Brigham Young, you had the right i - dea. —— If you saw what I saw, you'd go to U - tah, And sign a few up quick; They're go - ing fast. ——

f marcato

There are tall ones, fat ones, lit - tle ones, too, Be - lieve me, boy, there's plen - ty to do. Oh I wish I was out in that Mor-mon Land. —— If Land. ——

Think of nine wild women call - ing you dear, And each one read - y to vol - un - teer, Oh I wish I was out in that Mor-mon Land. —— If Land. ——
