

My Colorado QUEEN

WORDS BY

W. R. LOCKHART

MUSIC BY

J. C. EATON

My Colorado Queen.

Words by
W. R. Lockhart.

Music by J. C. Eaton.

Introd.

Piano.

$$mf$$

Andante.

There's a girl in Col - o - ra - do, As fair as e'er was seen, She's the She's the fair - est lit - tle sun-beam, In all the world I know, And to fair - est of all maid - en's, She's my Col - o - ra - do queen, I have me she is far sweet - er, Yes than a - ny flower that grows, And her met with ma - ny oth - ers Who's wit is just as keen, But face is fair as lil - ies Her eyes are just a dream, They

O, there's none that can com - pare, With my Col - o - ra - do queen.
twin - kle like the spark - ing stars, She's my Col - o - ra - do queen.

Chorus.

She is a lit - tle dar - ling, She's mod - est and se - rene And best of all her heart is mine, She's my Col - o - ra - do Queen,

She is a lit - tle dar - ling She's mod - est and se - rene And best of all her heart is mine, She's my Col - o - ra - do Queen.