

A STUDY IN BLACK AND WHITE

BY
CHAS. K.
HARRIS
AND LEO WOOD

Introduced by WILLA
HOLT WAKEFIELD

5

PUBLISHED BY CHAS. K. HARRIS
New York — Chicago — Toronto
ALBERT & SON, SYDNEY
B. FELDMAN & CO., LONDON

A Study In Black And White

Lyric by LEO WOOD

Music by CHAS. K. HARRIS

Moderato.

Could-n't read and could-n't write, - One was black and one was white; -
"Lit - tle fel - low, black of face, - Up a - bove you'll find your place, - p a tempo.

Ar - gu - ing as child-ren will, - Looked like trou-ble to, un-til -
When your time comes and you go - You'll be wel-come there I know; -

Lit - tle black - face soft - ly said - "I'll be white when I am dead -
God is good - and God is kind - And he'll keep your words in mind -

Chorus. Slowly.

'Cause nev-er saw the pic-ture of an An-gel That did-nt have a face as white as 'Cause We nev-er saw the pic-ture of an An-gel That did-nt have a face as white as p-f

snow, snow, And if Im, good un-til I die I'll be an An-gel in the sky, My
And if youre good un-til you die You'll be an An-gel in the sky, Your poco rit.

Mam-my says so and she ought to know. So i'll be so good and when I get to Mam-my says so and she ought to know. So just you be good and when you get to a tempo.

heav-en And God, He sees my face is black as night He'll have to find some way, you see, To heav-en And God, He sees your face as black as night He'll sure-ly have some way, we know To

poco rit.

make an An-gel out of me, So He'll wash my face with snow and make it white." white?"
make your black face white as snow If your soul is pure and sweet why you'll be white?" white?"

molto. a tempo.