The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in B-flat major, 4/4 time, marked mf. The piano part features a rhythmic melody in the right hand and a supporting bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the second system, marked p. The lyrics are as follows:

Pack up your lit - - tle grip and Hear them, oh, lov - - ing hon - ey, let's go a - way; Just for a day, Thro' the woods let us stray;
I can't keep still! That mu - sic shrill Goes thro' me like a thrill!
There we will see old Moth - er Na - ture, so grand,
Leaves a pe - cu - - liar feel - ing I can't ex - plain.

Lead her Band, ... that lov - ing Wood - land Band.
In my brain I feel I'll go in - sane.

The first system of the musical score features a vocal melody in the treble clef and a piano accompaniment in the bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 4/4. The lyrics are written below the vocal line.

If you've nev - er heard it, then don't tar - ry here;

The second system continues the melody and accompaniment. The piano part includes some chords and moving lines in both hands.

To the tune they hum and croon; So list - en, hon - ey dear,
Hurry, dear, that mu - sic hear! You bet it's just im - mense!

The third system includes a repeat sign in the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are split across two lines of the vocal melody.

let's go where we can hear That wonder - ful Wood - land Band your joy is sure in - tense, When that Woodland Band you hear.

The fourth system concludes the piece with a final cadence in the piano accompaniment. The lyrics end with a trailing ellipsis.
