Intro. Moderato

Voice.

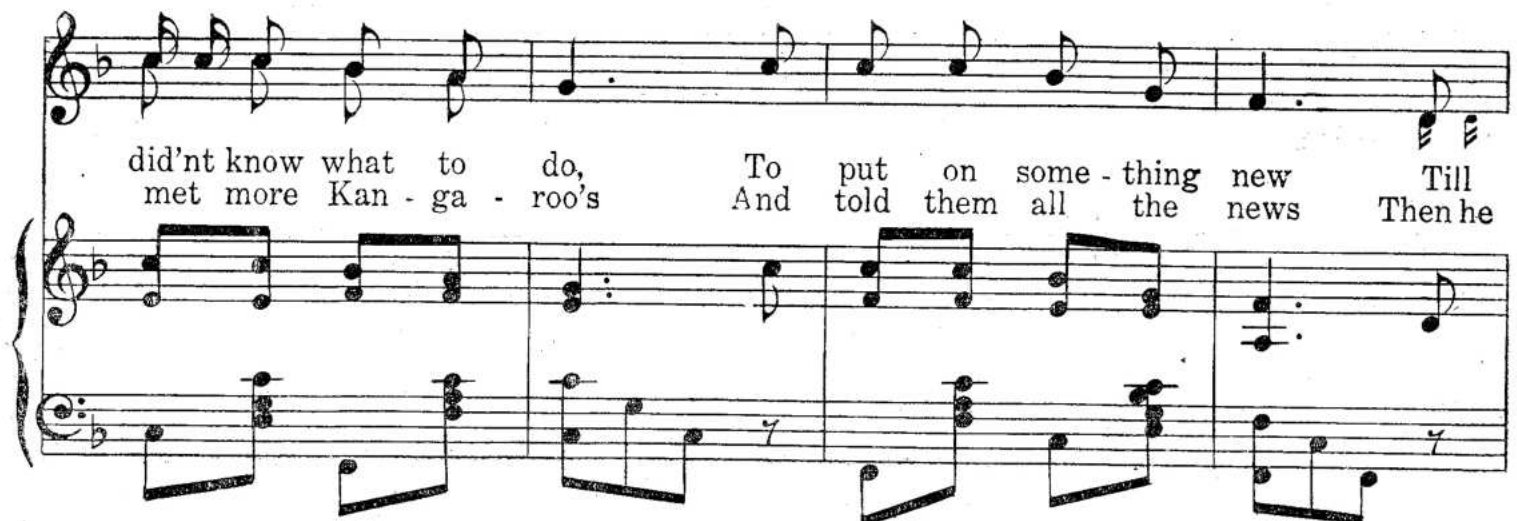

1. From a Town in O - hi o, Came a rag - time minstrel show, And
2. Now this Rag - time Kan - ga - roo, Who could show them what to do Es - land - ed in Aus - tra - lia just to try and catch the dough..... They

- caped one day, and ran a - way to the bush - land that he knew..... He didn't know what to do, To put on some - thing new Till met more Kan - ga - roo's And told them all the news Then he one of the show, said "I know what'll go, That's a rag - time Kan - ga - roo," So they showed them a rag, How to sway and to sag, And he quick-ly put them through, They com-sent a - way, that ve - ry day, To a far - off coun - try town, And

- menced to dance, and twist and prance, And whisk their tails a - round, And for told them they wanted a Kan - ga - roo to be at once sent down, And Kan - ga - roos who had got the blues a cure was quick-ly found, And when that Kan - ga - roo ar - rived they start-ed right a - way To when they all got start - ed off the peo-ple pass - ing by Com - teach it all the rags they knew, and ev - ry bless - ed day.....

- menced to clap their hands with glee, and then be - gan to say.....

fz

Chorus.

Oh! that rag-time Kan-ga - roo - oo - oo....., Oh the an - tics he went through - oo - oo, He'd - twist and turn in a rag-time walk,

Rag along a line that was drawn with chalk, Ev - 'ry rag - time move he quick-ly knew - oo - oo - oo - oo, All the col-oured folk from O hi

- o....., Clapped their hands and shout-ed "Let it go"....., That

Kan - ga-roo knew what to do showed them a lot they nev - er knew, This

Rig, rog, rag-et-ty, Rag-time Kan-ga - roo.....

Rig, rog, rag-et-ty, Rag-time Kan-ga - roo.....
