MY LEONORA LEE

Words by Billy Johnson

Music by Seymour Furth

1. When the moon is shin - ing in it's 2. Un - der-neath the jes - sa-mine we splendor wander,

And the night is qui - et as can be,
As the stars are peep - ing from the skies;

I will meet a maiden young and tender, If she'll keep the promise made to While she sits be-side me in a ponder, I can read the answer in her me..... She's as fair as a - ny lit - tle flower, eyes;..... Side by side we hear the night-birds cooing,

And my heart it beats for her a - lone;..... I im-patient-ly await the Basking in each other's love, we stay;..... Soon they seem to ask if we are hour..... When I can pro-claim her as my own..... woo-ing, In my an-swer this is what I say;.....

CHORUS

"She is my Le-o-no-ra, I a-dore 'er, She has big brown eyes,..... She is the one I i-dol-ize,..... I captured her for my first prize; She is so tanta-lizing, it's surprising That I want to be The one to change the name of

Le-o-no-ra Lee." "She is my Lee."
