VOICE

In old "Miss" the Del - ta is the place you ought to go. Tom-mie Lee When you hear your good man say he's goin' a - way to stay, Tell him if he Les-ter, Lawd, sure pulls some vi-'lin bow. When he plays Dol - ly sways and don't come back, you think he's gone a day, 'Cause where he won't an - oth - er will be vamps a - bout the floor. So one night at the hall the "Big Six Band" played jazz, might-y glad to stay. So when you leave take all your old rags ev-'ry-thing you had,

All the Browns all 'round town came out in all they had,
Leave a piece 'round me dear might make me feel so bad,

Dol-ly asked what it was that When you think of what you've done it made her feel so sad, ought to make you sad,

Tom-mie Lee then stood right up and with a smile he said:
Then you'll hear me sing these blues, blues you can't re-sist.

CHORUS

Oh! it's that tan-ta-li-zin', hyp-no-ti-zin', ag-gra-va-tin', ir-re-sist-in' strain.

Treble Clef 8va higher second time

Play it a-gain, oh play it a-gain, For ev-'ry time I think of the one who stole from me the beau-ti-ful sun, And left my life in dark-ness and in pain,

It makes me lone-ly,

'Cause I want on - ly you... But there will come a time some-day, When you will want my love and I'll be far a-way.

Ba-by O' mine you used to be mine, This way you've got of treat-ing me, Lawd, Sure is com-ing home to you hard, The good book says you reap just what you sow, You can't re-sist it the ir-re-sist-i-ble blues. Oh! it's that
