She's good to ev - 'ry mutt — In Ten - nes - see. The

Refrain

When I'm feel - ing lone and sad and when I've got the blues. I world is full of mus - ic for there's sing - ing in the trees, There's love to hear the squeak - ing of Su - san - nah's Sun - day shoes. I chirp - ing in the chick - en - run, and pi - ping in the breeze. There's hear them squeak - ing down the street, and squeak - ing up the stair: There's mus - ic when I'm wak - ing and there's mus - ic when I snooze: But not a sound of an - y kind to beat it an - y - where. I best I love the mus - ic of Su - san - nah's Sun - day shoes. I love the twang of old ban - jos; I love the haunt - ing mus - ic of the love the chime of chap - el bells; I love the sound of danc - ing in the pic - co - los; I love the cry - ing of the big ho - tels. I love the wail - ing of the cock - a - toos; } But best I love the squeak - ing of Su - rag - time blues; }

- san - nah's shoes.
