The Summer brought the ros - es, The ros-es said fare - well,
Each Summer brought me glad - ness, Each Autumn brought me joy,

Soon Au-tumn leaves were fall - ing, Bleak Winter came to dwell,
The Win-ter brought sweet pleas - ures That time can-not des - troy,

My sadness turned to glad - ness, Hope in my heart bloomed new,
The years have brought the sil - ver That shines in your gold hair,

For Winter brought the Spring-time, And Springtime brought me you.
Yet ev-'ry day to my way, You seem to grow more fair.

TED BARRON'S SENSATIONAL BALLAD HIT

When You're Lonesome For Someone Who's Lonesome For You

When you're lone some for some one who's lone some for you, You'll find that the world is all wrong. The birds in the trees may all sing mel o dies. But the mu sic is gone from their song. And the sun shine in sum mer has faded a way. Like the flowers and joys you once knew. Though you're try ing to smile Your heart aches all the while. When you're lone some for some one who's lone some for you, When you're you.
