The piano introduction consists of two systems of music. The first system is in 4/4 time, with a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is played in the right hand, and the bass line is in the left hand. The tempo is marked 'Moderato'. The second system continues the piano introduction, with a 'Till ready' marking above the right hand. The piano introduction ends with a forte (f) dynamic marking.

The first verse of the song is written for voice and piano. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "Gray skies must come to us all, Gray Trou - bles may come like the rain, But". The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.

The second verse of the song is written for voice and piano. The vocal line is in the treble clef, and the piano accompaniment is in the bass clef. The lyrics are: "days will pay us a call, But if you keep this they soon leave us a - gain, And then you'll find that". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady bass line and chords in the right hand.
