Music by Harold Orlob

Alla marcia (not too fast)

see-ing mov-ing pic-tures in my dreams. Now some of them sug-gest a brand-new im-i - tate the ac-tors in each show. Why, the kids are al-ways ask-ing Ma—rag-time dance, Just by the way the peo-ple fall a - round and prance; I for a dime, They're in some mov-ing pic-ture thea-tre half their time; They have the name, it should win fame, As oth - er rags are on the wane. Now I'll all get rough and make a bluff At do - ing all the pic-ture stuff. You tell it to you, This is what they do:

must ad-mit it's true, It's in your fam-i - ly, too:

REFRAIN

Ev-ry - bod - y's fall-ing down, It's the Keystone glide, —

Ev-ry - bod - y's

roll-ing round, It's the Keystone glide; —

Those Keystone cops, all do-ing flops Just like a lot of Hot-ten - tots, —

In the reels the ac-tors show their heels, show their heels:

Ev-ry - bod - y's on the run In the Keystone glide, —

rit.

Ev-'ry - bod - y's hav-ing fun In the Keystone glide, _____

Ev-'ry-bod - y tries to hide, slide; Ev-'ry-bod - y tries the wide stride;

See the folks all tak-ing bumps, Do-ing hops and fun-ny jumps! That's what people call the Keystone glide. glide.
