By IRVING COHN

By the writer of "Yes We Have No Bananas"

PIANO Moderato

VOICE

Right near the drug store on our street there Now mar-ga-rine is ver-y fine and is a res-tau-rant Where Greek and Greek do meet It's there I go to so is mar-ma-lade Think jam is quite a treat and jel-ly can't be eat The man that sells ba-nan-as comes and eats his break-fast there He beat And e-ven schmaltz when spread up-on a piece of toast is rare But or-ders milk and toast and then he tells his host if you ask my pick sweet but-ter good and thick

This system contains the first line of the song. It features a vocal melody on a treble clef staff and a piano accompaniment on grand staff (treble and bass clefs). The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The piano part consists of chords and single notes, with some rests indicated by 'z'.

CHORUS

Sweet but-ter Sweet but-ter Sweet but-ter on my toast I or-der Sweet

This system contains the second line of the song, which is the beginning of the chorus. It follows the same musical structure as the first system, with a vocal melody and piano accompaniment. The piano part includes a dynamic marking of p-f (piano-forte) at the start of the line.

but-ter be-cause I like it most I love it I like it I can-not tell you

This system contains the third line of the song. The vocal melody continues with the piano accompaniment. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.

why But if you will watch me You'll see the but-ter fly Sweet

This system contains the fourth line of the song. The vocal melody concludes with a final note, and the piano accompaniment provides a concluding chord. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff.
