The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand features a series of chords and arpeggiated figures in a key of D major (one sharp). The left hand provides a simple harmonic accompaniment with quarter and eighth notes.

The first vocal line begins with a whole rest, followed by the lyrics: "I've never had a lov-er all my own Someone has always shared a - part". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and arpeggios, featuring some triplet rhythms in the right hand.

The second vocal line starts with a quarter rest, followed by the lyrics: "I want some-bo-dy I can call my own — Mines an emp-ty ach-ing heart". The piano accompaniment continues with a steady harmonic accompaniment.

The third vocal line begins with a quarter rest, followed by the lyrics: "So I sigh for — I cry — for — I'd die for a sweet - heart —". The piano accompaniment continues with chords and arpeggiated figures, ending with a final chord.

And when I find one that ap-peals to me — There'll be no es-cap-ing then
