Folks I'm goin to tell you 'bout a new dance craze Down in Dix-ie Land

Talk a-bout your step-ping, they go wild Danc-ing to a jaz-zy band, You will find it most ev-ery where, If you ev-er get down there, Its called the Old Black Bot-tom you can tell 'em if you ev-er see it, You can't for-get em

Old Aunt Flo old and weak, strut-ted on the floor and grabbed her-self a sheik, It's got a rag-gy mo-tion like a wave-y o-cean, Oh boy it looks grand Old Un-cle Joe,— eight-y years old, Thro-wed a-way his crutch and did the jel-ly roll, When he saw Old Par-son Brown,— pasteighty three, Yelled some lov-ing ma-ma come and play with me, the black bot-tom, black, black bot-tom, Down in Dix-ie Land.
