1910-H

THE MELODY OF THIS WILL CREEP INTO ANYTHING.

THE SOUSE PD RAG

-BY-

WILBER PIPER 50

C.C.POWELL ft.Wayne,Ind Published by THE H.R. M. CLURE 6.
Sidney, O.

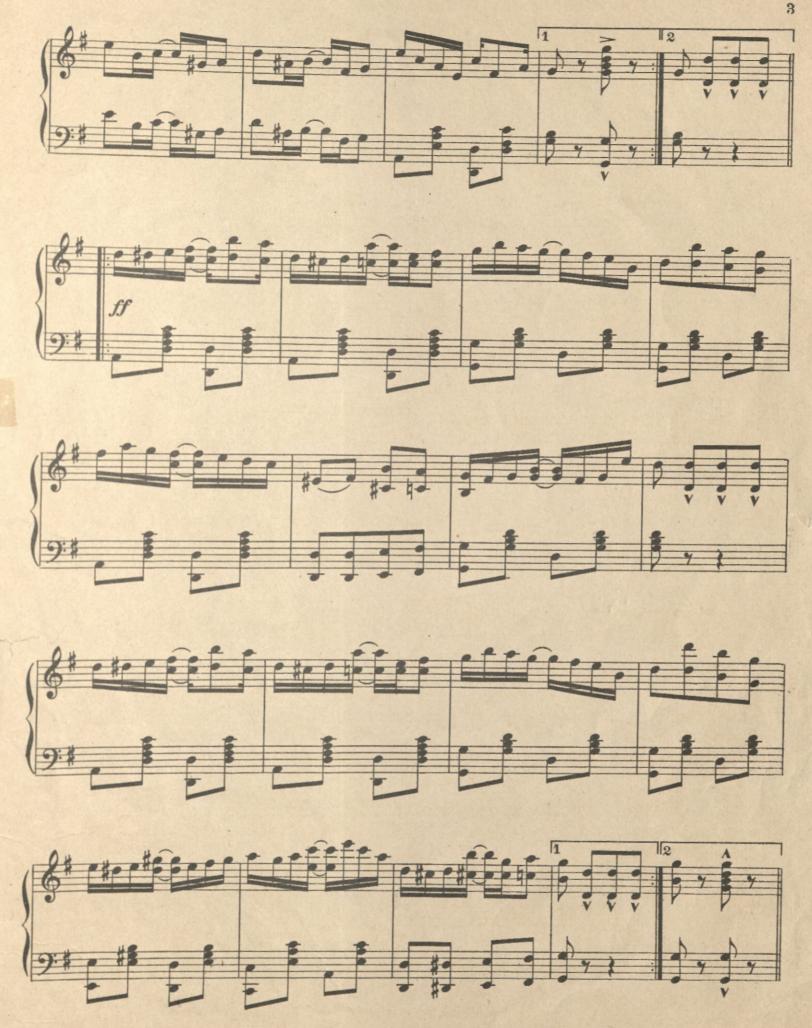

RAPP PUBLISHING @ Hudson, N.Y.

THE RED MOUSE

WILBUR PIPER
Comp. of Commencement Days

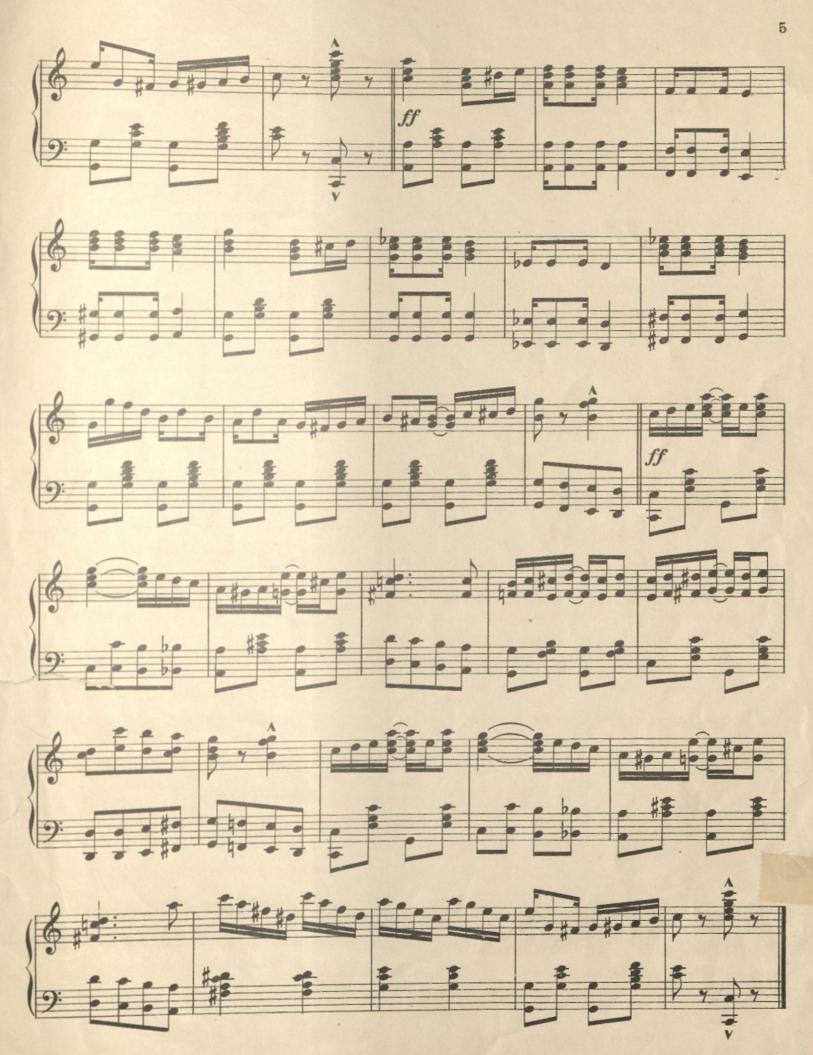

Copyright MCMX by H. R. McClure Co.

The R. M. 4

The R. M. A

The R.M. 4

A Pretty Home Song

Why Do You Always Leave Me

Just a memory of the Daisy Songs you love

Ask for a copy and get it tried over-you can not help from wanting it A McClure Scope

esTHEss

ISLE of SPOON

LISCHERT

CURRENT

The Greatest Waltz Hit Since "Meet Me Tonight in Dreamland"

There is no doubt but what it will gain instantaneous favor from coast to coast wherever presented.

GET YOUR COPY NOW

A Selected List of Our Publications that Everybody Buys.

Songs.

"Just for Tonight" and "The New Creation"

The most popular sacred songs since the famous "Holy City."

"Roses and You"

Thousands sold already and still going.

"Just a Little Baby" and "His Mother's Boy"

Real kid's songs (Mr. McClure wrote them—nuf sed).

"Good-bye, My Irish Coon"

That comic song success.

"Why Do You Always Leave Me"

A ballad that will live forever.

"Back to Home Sweet Home" and

"The Isle of Spoon"

Instrumental.

"Jim Crow Rag"
The third edition now out.

The third edition now out.

"Red Mouse Rag"

The melody of this will creep into anything.

"The Dixie Flyer"

A march and two-step of merit.

"The Musketeer"

A march; hear the boys whistle it.

"Sun Flag Waltzes"

Better than "Dream of Heaven."

"Father Time Waltzes"

Hard to beat.

and

"The Speedway"

"The Last Cavalry Charge"

Marches.

The Isle Of Spoon.

Words by FRANK LITSCHERT
CHORUS

To the dear little isle of Spoon, It's the grandold month of Juse, Aed

we will search for it down the bay, I don't care if we're cast a-way, Sribere's towe in the bal - my breeze, As it whis - pers thro' the trees. Sowhile life is so gay, Let us has bee a -way. To the dear little isle of Spoon. Spoon.

Our Publications for Sale by Your Dealer or Sent Direct for 20 Cents Postpaid.

H. R. McCLURE CO. - Ohio Publishers - Sidney