Tempo di Marcia.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in 2/4 time, marked 'Tempo di Marcia'. The piano part features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. Dynamics include p (piano), ff (fortissimo), and pp (pianissimo). The vocal melody enters in the second measure. The lyrics are as follows:

When the win-ter days are ov-er, and the sum-mer's come to stay, The At Tash-moo life's worth liv-ing, on the hot-test sum-mer's day, With birds are sing-ing and the bells are ringing and the boats are on their way, You hearts a-glow-ing and the breez-es blowing and all na-ture's bright and gay. You feel your work is ov - er, And va - ca - tion days are near, You have your sweet - heart with you, and from all care you are free, For plan a trip up through the flats, a place to all so dear, You noth - ing can com - pare with this, its the place for you and me, The pack a lunch to keep a - way the hun - ger thro' the day, And band will play the mer - ry tunes, you're all out on a lark, And gai - ly sing as to the dock, you quick - ly wend your way. trou - bles are all laid a - side, for a day at Tash - moo Park,
