Southern Blues

Music by LEO FRIEDMAN

Fox trot.

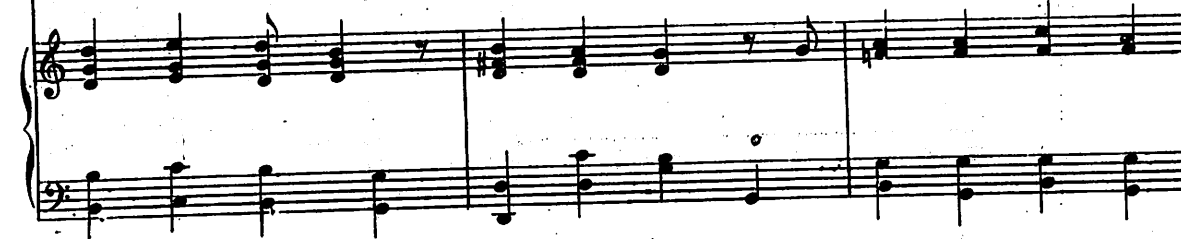

I want to go back where I can hear Those blue that make me
Oh, those Southernblues are on my mind! I've sat and lis - tened feel so queer! When I hear that Jaz - zy Jazz Band play, I could man - y times. All a - bout the days that I have seen, Down in sit and lis - ten all the day; And when they start that Dix - ie with a South - ern queen; And now, dear friends, I mus - i - cal sway, It drive the blues a - way.

just want to say, "It won't be but a day."

CHORUS

I'm going down, I'm going down, Down to some South-ern town, — Where

I can hear that Jazz, Jazz-Band, That makes me feel so ve - ry grand; — When I hear those blues whist - ling thru the trees, Lor - dy, I know I'll be real pleased!

Going to get my danc - ing shoes, For I can't keep still when I hear those blues.
