

DANCING BLUES

A FOX TROT SONG

SUCCESSFULLY INTRODUCED BY

WORDS BY
RICHARD GOLDSMITH
SEYMOUR B. SIMONS
MUSIC BY
SEYMOUR B. SIMONS

THE J. B. SHERMAN CO.
MUSIC PUBLISHERS
ANN ARBOR MICH

Albion Music Store
120 & 122 E. Liberty St.
Ann Arbor - Michigan

DANCING BLUES

Words by
RICHARD GOLDSMITH
SEYMOUR B. SIMONS

Music by
SEYMOUR B. SIMONS

Moderato

TILL READY

VOICE

Most ev-'ry time you're feel-ing blue, There's on-ly one thing you can do, Danc-ing,
No mat-ter how, when, why or where, If they have got good mu-sic there, Danc-ing,

p

is the thing for you. There ain't no use to sit and sigh, drives a way "dull care." Just try some mu-sic soft and slow,

p

When you can see the rea-son why, Danc-ing, is the thing to try.
Just grab a girl and a-way you go, Danc-ing, will help I know.

p

CHORUS

Go get your danc-ing shoes, You've got the danc-ing blues, Just lis-ten, hear them moaning,

p-f

Sax-a-phon-ing, A call you can't re-fuse. That mel-an-chol-y strain, — Would drive a man in-sane, —

— 'Cause hon-ey, when you're dancing 'round the floor, Till your feet are getting sore, Still you hang a-round for more ;

Then you'll know, 'cause that will show, You've got the dancing blues. Then you'll know 'cause that will show, You've got the danc-ing blues. Go get your blues. —

— Hear them moan-ing, Sax-a-phon-ing, Yes, you've got the danc-ing blues.