Young Slim Per - kins liv - in' up in Maine, Was All Slim's neigh-bors liv - in' up in Maine, With look - in' out the win - dow of the old troop train; 'Way off yon - der flags and flow - ers they fixed up the old troop train; All at once the com - in' down a hill He spied his Un - cle Hi - ram and his old Aunt Lil, They Cap - tain moved his hand And Slim was start - in' on his way for "No Man's Land," And just got there be - fore he went a - way, — And Slim heard his Un - cle Hi - ram say: — as the train pulled out a - mid their cheers, — These words kept a - ring - ing in his ears: —

Chorus (well accentuated)

Good-bye Slim, al - tho' you're long and lank-y You're a Yan-kee thru' and p-f thru' Be-fore you sail the o - cean blue, You won't mind me tell - in' you what to do If you see the fel - ler with the big mus-tache

I mean Kai - ser Bill, Just sneak up in back of him And take one crack at him, For me and your old Aunt Lil. Lil.
