Since I left my old home town, — Home sick-ness has wore me down; — I'm long - ing for that land of sweet hap - pi - ness, For I con - fess, — My wea - ry, soul is in dis - tress, Mich - i - gan keeps cal - lin' me — To come home to my ba - by, — That's why I can't sleep, That's why I can't eat, Oh how I long to be there.

CHORUS

Wol - ver - ine, I've been yearning, Wol - ver - ine,

I'm re-turn-ing; I'll soon be back with you, and once more I'll be danc-ing back in Lansing, Mich - i - gan how I miss you, Both night and day I've seen 'bout all that there is to see I know they're wait - ing back home for me,

That's why I've got those Wol-ver-ine Blues. Blues.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. The vocal line is in the upper staff, and the piano accompaniment is in the lower staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat major or D minor). The tempo is marked 'p-f' (piano-forte). The score includes guitar chord diagrams above the vocal line. The lyrics are written below the vocal line. The score is divided into two systems, with a repeat sign and first/second endings indicated.
