

MONKEY SHINES

LYRIC BY
E. S. HUNTINGTON

MUSIC BY
ARTHUR H. GUTMAN

5

SEYMOUR FURTH MUSIC PUB CO.
1416 BROADWAY N. Y.

Monkey Shines.

Lyric by E.S.S. Huntington.

Music by Arthur H. Gutman.

Allegro.

Piano.

Voice.

Of ten there comes steal - ing, just a lit - tle
Those were all the gay - days, those old far a - till ready.

feel - ing, For the days that now are gone for good, They were days of way days, Which will nev - er come to us a gain, I re - call how glad - ness with - out care or sad - ness, When we ran the neigh - bor -

"Skin - ny" one day threw his shin - ny, Through a neigh - bor's win - dow hood; _____ Af - ter school was ov - er, we would play Red Rov - er, pane; _____ Boys and girls to - geth - er, in all kinds of weath - er,

sfz
p

Leap the Frog, and Pris - ner's Base _____ In the sun - shine, rain or snow, we were Ev - 'ry - one was just a kid _____ Now I won - der ev' - ry day, how we al - ways on the go, An - y - time or place. _____

 ev - er got a - way With the things we did. _____

sfz

Chorus.

Mon - key - shines, Mon - key - shines, tricks wed play af - ter School _____

p - f

Ball and bat one o' cat then came Ap - ril -

Fool Oh! what fun, on some - one, to pin a lot of signs. My! what mis-chief we would raise, in those old top-sy - tur - vy - day of Mon - key, Mon - key Shines. Shines.

ff fz sfz