Sal - ly's Paw, with lots of wis - dom in their head, Said, Vam - pire ways and ev - 'ry night tore off the lid, Said,
"how you gon - na keep 'em down on the farm?" and here's what Sal - ly said:
"now we're gon - na keep 'em down on the farm! yes! just like Sal - ly did."
CHORUS.
p-f Light up the farm at night, make ev - 'ry lane as bright as Where corn and pump - kins grow, put on a bur - lesque show, and old Broadway, Put in a brand new still, and make the do it now, To make them smile and laugh, we'll put a eid - er mill, a cab-a - ret, pho - no - graph be - hind each plow,

And a jazz band there must be,
Just to chase a - way the gloom, chuck full of blue note har-mon-y, from the farm house din-ing room, I'll par-ley vous him, and I'll Have the swell-est dol - lies, from the shimmee to him, like a French "Ba - bee."
Zieg-fields Fol - lies, work - ing night and noon,
And while the
