Truth-ful Par-son

Brown, liv-ing in a South-ern town — For talk-ing good-and do-ing good—

He was known a - round;— He had a most pe-cul-i-ar way, — of preach-in' on the Sab-bath

Day On an or-gan soft and low he would sing and play. — squirm-in'— And pay more a-ten-tion to my syn-co-pa-ted ser-mon. Broth-ers!— and f

Sis-ters!— List-en to truth-ful Par-son Brown— A lot of talk-in' will nev-er win the crown; So I'll prac-tise what I preach, and give a ser-mon with-out speech;

Broth-ers! — and Sis-ters! — List-en to truth-ful Par-son Brown; —

The musical score for 'The Frog' is presented in two systems. The first system shows the vocal line with the lyrics 'Stop Squirm - in' and the piano accompaniment. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics 'and' and the piano accompaniment. The piano part features a variety of chords and a rhythmic pattern in the bass line.

A lot of talk-in' will nev-er win the crown — If you don't like the mus-ic of this song, You ought to like the words 'cause the words ain't long, Broth-ers! — and Sis-ters! — List-en to truth-ful Par-son

Brown — You'll nev-er get a-head if you try to keep your broth-ers down.
