A vertical strip of seven illustrations, each depicting a different theatrical costume or character. From top to bottom: 1. A woman in a large, voluminous, striped gown with a dark bodice and a full skirt. 2. A man in a dark, short-sleeved tunic and breeches, wearing a wide-brimmed hat and holding a sword. 3. A woman in a long, flowing, light-colored dress with a dark capelet, wearing a tall, dark feathered headdress. 4. Three men in formal suits standing together; the man in the center is in a dark suit, while the two flanking him are in lighter-colored suits. 5. A woman in a dark, fringed tutu and a white headband, holding a long, thin object horizontally. 6. A man in a dark suit and a wide-brimmed hat, holding hands with a woman in a dark dress. 7. A man in a dark suit and a wide-brimmed hat, sitting on a striped chair and holding a large, round object.

Moderato

G C E A

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction in G major, marked 'Moderato'. The piano part features a melody in the right hand and a bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody enters in the third measure. The lyrics are: '1. I'm full of mis-er-y; 2. I took her to a man'. The piano accompaniment continues with chords and a bass line. The lyrics continue: 'Dat's all dat I kin see. I'm ag-i-tat-ed, Who had a sure-fire plan To try an' ren-der'. The score includes various musical notations such as dynamics (f, mp), articulation (accents), and chord diagrams for guitar/ukulele (C, Ab7, C7, F, Dim.).

1. I'm full of mis-er-y;
2. I took her to a man
