Moderately

Back in the old days When men had bold ways, Far from bells toll - ing,
Down the sea swing - ing, Heart gai ly sing - ing, Moon soft - ly glow - ing,

p mysteriously

On the sea roll - ing, Sailed a pir - ate king
Wind wild - ly blow - ing, He sailed on towards home.

Maid in Ba - ha - ma, Sail - ing to claim her, By stars a - bove her None ev - er near - er, No trea - sure dear er, For true love long ing,

He swore to love her, Thru the night he'd sing
He swore at dawn-ing, Nev - er more to roam.

REFRAIN

Ba - ha - ma down up-on the south-ern sea,

You hold one who is the world to me.

Id give all my gold Just to be told

That some day mine shell be. I'll hold her in my arms to - mor - row,

When the pur-ple sha-dows fall Shell hear me when from the sea I call To tell her just how I a-dore and long to live for-

-ev-er-more Up - on that sun-lit shore of old Ba - ha - ma. Ba - ma.
