Tempo di Marcia

The musical score is written for piano and voice. The piano part is in 2/4 time, marked 'Tempo di Marcia'. It begins with a series of chords and eighth notes, creating a rhythmic accompaniment. The vocal melody is written on a single staff, with lyrics placed below the notes. The lyrics are: 'Life has its days of lone-li-ness, Ev-ry Once ev-ry year in sum-mer time, All the one has trou-bles of his own. Elks get to-ge-th-er in a crowd. Good for-tune seems to come on-ly in dreams, And your From far and near they will come, nev-er fear, And the'. The score includes dynamic markings such as f (forte), mf (mezzo-forte), and mp (mezzo-piano). The piano part features various musical notations including chords, eighth notes, and rests.

Life has its days of lone-li-ness, Ev-ry Once ev-ry year in sum-mer time, All the one has trou-bles of his own.
Elks get to-ge-th-er in a crowd.
Good for-tune seems to come on-ly in dreams, And your From far and near they will come, nev-er fear, And the friends all leave you a - lone. But there is town that gets 'em is proud. Sun - beams are one chap who al - ways sticks, And nev - er shirks his

CHORUS

Vivo

Bill, Bill, he's al - ways the same, —

Ea - ger to praise, re - luc - tant to blame;

When he meets a pal with trou - bles, They go just like bub - bles When he gets in the game. He has a won - der - ful smile, That makes life seem worth while; You know that you can al - ways count on Bill;— ON WHO? On Broth - er

1 Bill!— 2 Bill!—
