Old Sam Jones runs and owns a Ca - fe on ea - sy street, But a coon will hear for man - y a year "Go way back and sit down" He's coon hangs 'round that he calls down that will ne - ver ev - er treat. He got no vim, the shoe fits him, still he keeps on hang - ing a - round. He likes his gin and will "butt in" to ev - ery ar - gu - ment, But still does say there'll come the day when bet - ter times he'll see; If he when Sam's there he does - nt dare, he acts much dif - fer - ent. He aint got no-thing keeps his health he'll sure have wealth and live in lux - u - ry. He bet on a horse that won't do no-thing there's nothing he will try, But hu-mil - i-ates and ag - gra-vates the al-ways lost, the coons all laughed at him, But this time it won at a hundred to one, Then cus - to - mers that buy. 'Twas left to Sam, the pro - pri - e - tor man, to find this dar-key thousands he "cashed in". He left the field in an au - to - mo - bile That took him to Sam's out, And when he did there was no - thing hid, Ev - ery bo - dy heard Sam shout: place, Sam thought he was broke and started to joke, So he told Sam to his face:

Go 'way back and sit down.
