Brother-'N-Law Dan

By JOE JORDAN

Joe's brother Dan came to vis-it one day Jen-nie she fell dead in love with I came home this- morn-in' fore day Start-ed in as us-u-al with my him right a-way She said "I'm sure it's lone-some for you par-rot to play Now Dan, I aint sus-pis-cious but I'm down in Ten-nes-see Won't you come and live with us and blamed if I can see What my pol-ly meant by screech-in'

keep me com-pa-ny, You know, I know: _____
out these words to me, Like this and this: _____

CHORUS

Broth-er'n-law Dan Broth-er'n-law Dan You can love much bet-ter than your broth - er Joe can - You've got a lov - in' whis - per that just tick - les my ear, And a tan - ta - liz - in' voice that I just loves to hear - And when you are a - way from me I raves and raves I sees that lov - in' smile of yours for days and days Then a feel - in'round my heart just plays and plays And I could love you, hon-ey, al - ways al - ways, I knows it's wrong but I can't help it Broth-er'n-law Dan But you sho' can love much bet - ter than your broth-er Joe can. broth - er Joe can.
