

I WANT 'EM WILD, WEAK, WARM & WILLING

INTRODUCED WITH GREAT SUCCESS BY

EDDIE CANTOR

IN ZIEGFELD FOLLIES

1923 EDITION

By EDDIE CANTOR
& SAM COSLOW

MADE IN U.S.A.

STARK & COWAN
Music Publishers
234 West 40th Street
New York

Barbelle

I Want 'Em Wild, Weak, Warm and Willing<sup>3</sup>

By SAM COSLOW
and EDDIE CANTOR

Allegretto moderato

Piano

Vamp

Voice

tic - u - lar A - bout the girls it's true Beau - ty nev - er makes me rave beau - ti - ful They're won - der - ful I know But there's something that they lack

For it's some-thing else I crave Ev-'ry time I meet a girl I want the world to
They don't seem to have the knack Though a girl is beau-ti-ful Or won-der-ful you know see She may be simply grand But here's what I de - mand.

I don't want love ga - lore She must have some - thing more.

Chorus

I want 'em wild, weak, warm and will-ing or else I don't want

— 'em at all — Just give me a girl- ie and a mor-ris chair
Girls who know their lessons in the Sunday School

She'll find that I'm the ans- wer to a maid- en's prayer — I want a miss
For - get them when they get in- side a ves- ti - bule — whose kiss is thrill-ing For no oth-er kind - would I fall — kill - ing

I know a girl whose got no e - du - ca - tion it's true — But she taught me a
A girl will cuddle close to me then shell wink her eye — It may be in De - lot of things that I nev-er knew — I want 'em wild, weak, warm and cem-ber, But I'll feel like Ju-ly —

1 willing or else I don't want 'em at all. I want 'em all.
2