All my life I've been a roam-er, —
If you'd on-ly think it ov-er, —

Till ready

Nev-er was a home, sweet hom-er, — Till one day I yearned, — Then You would never be a roo-er, — I grant you may find, — That home-ward I turned, — Say, here is the les-son I learned: — folks treat you kind, — But just bear this one-thing in mind. —

Chorus

You'll get a wel - come — 'way down in Geor - gia, — They'll make you You'll get a wel - come — in old Vir - gin - ia, — You'll find a wel - come — 'way up in Maine, — And should you ev - er stray — wel - come — in Ill - in - ois, — And if by chance you go —

— 'way out to I - o - wa — You'll be wel - comed by the gold - en
 — out there to I - da - ho — They are bound to fill your heart with grain. — Let me in - form 'ya' — that Cal - i -

 joy. — You'll think you're luck - y — when you hit

forn - ia, — Is gon - na warm 'ya' like her 'tuck - y, — And wan - na claim it as your own; — 'Tho' might - y good each wel - come seems, you won't own; — But I'm right here to make a bet, you ain't know what wel - come means, Till you're wel - come back at home, sweet had no wel - come yet, Till you're wel - come back at home, sweet

1 home. — You'll get a home. — 2 home. —
home. — You'll get a home. —
