

'FRISCO'S KITCHEN STOVE RAG

AS FEATURED BY FRISCO
LATE STAR
ZIEGFELD FOLLIES

1918
CREATOR OF THE JAZZ DANCE

B. L. HAYES & CO.
PIANOS AND MUSIC,
365 N. 1ST ST.,
FITCHBURG, MASS.

WORDS BY
C. FRANCIS REISNER
WRITER OF "GOOD BYE
BROADWAY, HELLO FRANCE"

MUSIC BY JIMMY MORGAN WRITER OF "DON'T BITE THE HAND THAT'S FEEDING YOU"

GEO. FAIRMAN,
PUBLISHER
145 W. 45TH ST., NEW YORK

Frisco's Kitchen Stove Rag.

Words by
C. FRANCIS REISNER.

Music by JIMMIE MORGAN.

Piano. ff

Vamp.

Down in Dix - ie
One step called the there's a spot. They do a dance that sure is hot The kit-chen stove is what they call this furn-ace shake. An - oth-er one called bake the cake The kit-chen stove gives ev - 'ry one a new hot danc-ing craze. You feel as though your ver - y soul, Was a piece of burn-ing danc-ing ap - pe - tite. The la - dy's there with style and looks, Danc-ing like a bunch of coal. — And when you do this dance you'll think your feet are all a - blaze.

cooks. — And when that Jazz band starts to play you burn up with de - light.

Chorus.

Come lets do the kitch - en stove. Down at Dark towns mid-night grove. It will set your heart a - flame. And make you dance till you are lame. Each man whirls his la - dy fair.

Just like smoke we'll fan the air, The shoes up-on your feet. Will burn up with the heat You'll have a hot time when you do the kitch-en stove, Get the wood, Get the wood, Get the wood. stove. Get the wood, Get the wood, Get the wood. Burn it up