A SOUTHERN COON SONG BY THE AUTHOR OF "BROWN SKIN"

CALL ME SHINE

By
Armana J. Piron

Williams & Piron
Music Publishing Co.,
1315 Tulane Avenue,
New Orleans, La.

CALL ME SHINE

Arr. by
J. W. MAC NEAL

By ARMAND J. PIRON
Author of "Brownskin"

Copyright MCMXVII by Williams & Piron.

start-ed to play The song they're sing-ing day by day, But to this gal I soft-ly said:
par-son to-day, He lives right there a-cross the way, Then to me Han-nah soft-ly said:
CHORUS
Call me Shine, just plain old Shine, That name will do for mine,
Ev-'ry day you will find Some-one that's out of line.
1. They ei-ther want to
2. I don't care a-bout
3. I have-n't got that be a Brown Skin or a Palm Beach Blond, They bleach their face and try to make their hair grow long.
that thing folks call social e-qual-i-ty, A cold black shine is plen-ty good e-nough for me.
sick-ness some folks call the col-or blind, I'm go-ing cra-zy all a-bout that cold black shine.
1
2
Call me Shine, just plain old Shine, That name will do for mine.