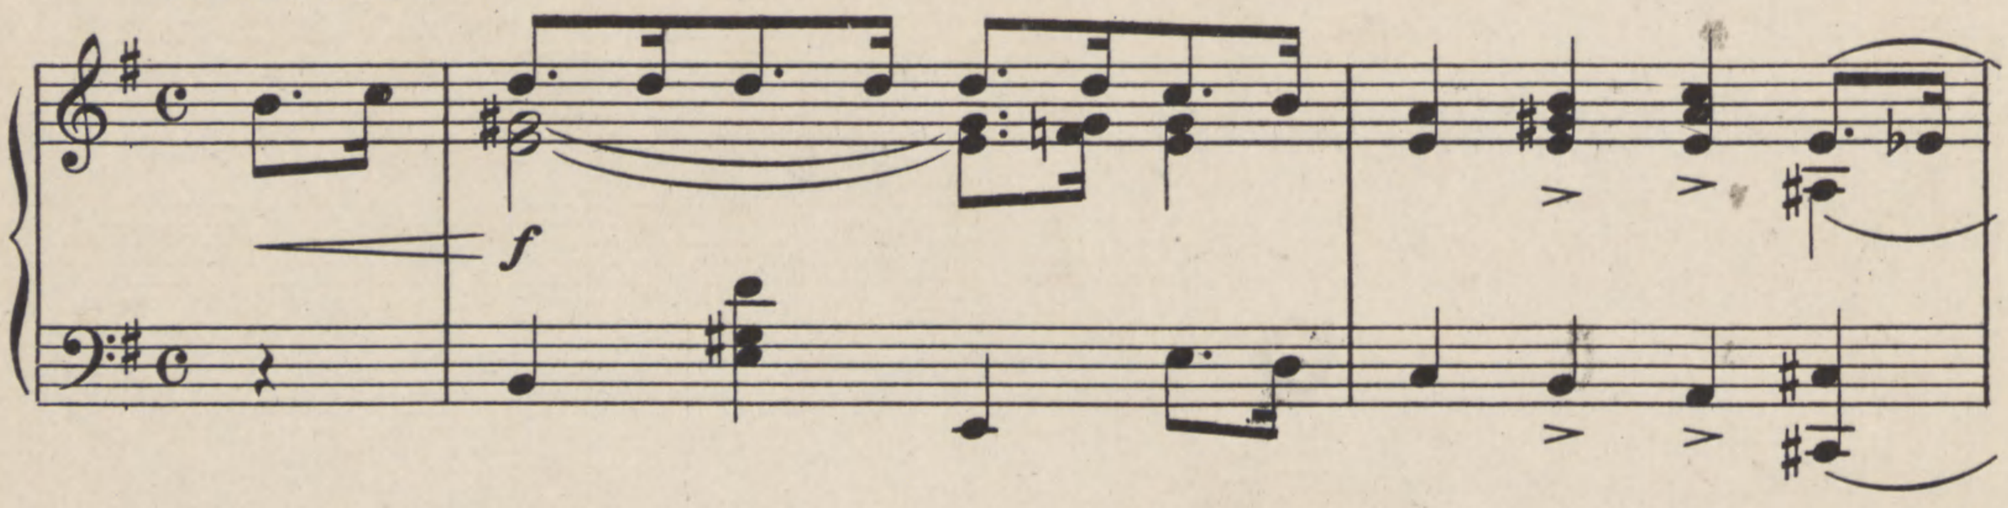
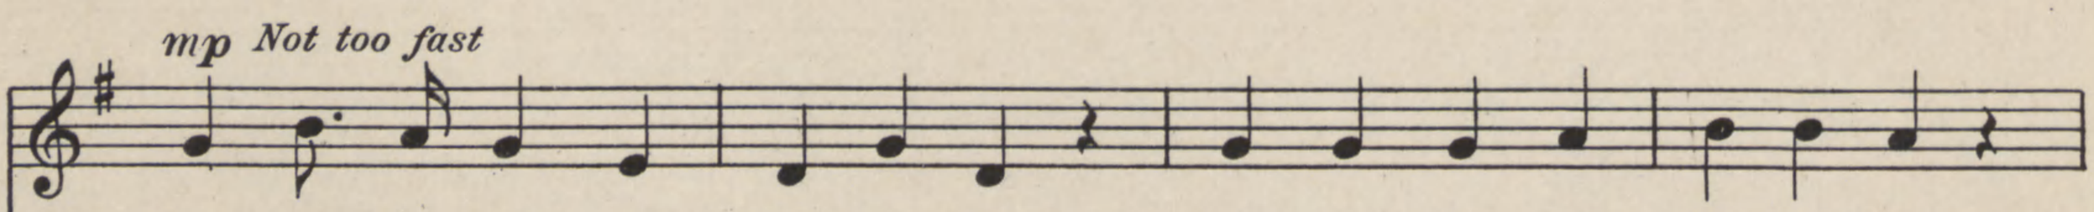
He's a Small-Town Sport

Revised Edition

Words and Music by
GEORGE SPINK

Moderato





1. Up in the hills of New Hamp-shire Lives a rube named Si - las Greer;
2. Si wears his coat cut short, you bet, And his trous - ers short - er yet;
3. There is no Broad - way in the town Where Si Greer is vil - lage clown;

He's just as fly as a rube can be; Says,"Ci - ty folks got noth - in' on me."
He wears his spats like a diz - zy blond, Bright red cra-vat to cor - res-pond,
Cows graze a-round on the vil - lage green; Gals tan-gled up at sweet six-teen.

Goes to the drug store ev -'ry night, Drinks two so-dies and goes home tight;
Broad-brimmed cha-peau with pea-green band, Mis - placed brow on up-per lip and
Si does-n't mix with small-town Janes; He claims they're fickle and short on brains;

Wears his hair sleeked back, and then You will find him pos - ing in the "five and ten."
Fan - cy waist - coat decked with pearls, And a reg -'lar cut - up with the big - town girls.
His run-a-bout, so spick and span, Nev - er was in - tend-ed for a small - town man.
