on this side; She's made a lot of mon - ey, sim - ply be - cause got the chance; This kind of should - er work is fine ex - er - cise,

The Ga - by Glide she dan - ces. My name is Wrig - gle, so a It's just as good as San - dow; You've got to do it, when you dance I've got, It's call'd the "Wrig - gle," or the "Rag - time Trot;"

rag the rag; First you are on the "zig" then on the "zag;"

So, don't go, And I'll show you the Wrig - gl - ey Rag.
Say, just stay, And you all can wrig - gle with me.

The Wriggley Rag.

4 CHORUS. 2nd time f (Counter Melody.)

Oh! oh, that Wrig - gley Rag, How you whirl a bit and curl a bit and twirl a bit,
 First give a glide, then a stride, then a slide, on your side, As you twirl a bit;
 Oh! oh, that Wrig - gley Rag, Sets you wrig - gl - ing and jig - gl - ing and gig - gl - ing,
 Then make a slip, with your hip, like the dip of a ship, As you curl a bit.
 Drop all those Grizz - ly dan - ces, Don't you go tak - ing chan - ces,
 Say what you like of the Griz - z - ly Bear, This is the Glide that is mak - ing them stare;
 It's dan - dy! Come on! Shake it up! Shake it up! Shake it up! Shake it up!
 It's dan - dy! Come a - long! Shake it up, shake it up, shake it up, Geel

Oh! oh, that Wrig - gley Rag, Don't you make a fuss, but look at us, it's mar - vel - lous.

Twirl round a - bout, in and out, like a trout, with the gout. Oh! it's marvellous!

Oh! oh, that Wrig - gley - Rag, Leave your squabbling, go hob - bl - ing and wob - bl - ing, Folks ev'ry where with a stare will declare you're a bear, Or an oc - to - pus!

Take in the stalls and gal - l'ry, Soon they will raise your sal - 'ry,

Smile at the stalls, as you wob - ble a bit, Roll both your eyes, like a pig in a fit, Shake it like a snake until your bo - dy gets an ache What's that? That's the Wrig - gley Rag! Rag!

Shake like a snake till your ribs fair - ly ache, That's the Wrig - gley Rag! Rag!

The Wriggley Rag.
